Admission statement

Goshen College seeks to admit students interested in earning a master's degree from a private Christ-centered college of liberal arts and sciences. Goshen College has developed a rigorous academic program around our core community values which reflect our desire to prepare students to become Christ-centered passionate learners, global citizens, compassionate peacemakers and servant leaders. You will encounter the Christian faith as it is held and lived by our faculty and Goshen students. Goshen College is rooted in the Mennonite Church, one of the historic peace churches. All students are expected to live in accordance with the "Commitment to Community Standards," as stated in the Goshen College Course Catalog (pp. 6-7).
