How to apply for admission

Goshen College invites you to apply for admission to the college by completing the forms included in this application packet, as they pertain to you. A personal written essay is required for all applicants (see instructions on page 15). We encourage you to visit the campus to learn more about the opportunities that await you if you enroll. Please contact the admission office if you have questions while completing these forms.

Contact information: 1-800-348-7422 or 574-535-7535 or admission@goshen.edu

Admission statement

The following statement should be considered as a condition of admission: Goshen College maintains standards for behavior, which contribute to a strong campus community. Students from different backgrounds may have different values, but the Goshen College community expects a lifestyle that excludes use of alcohol, use or possession of non-medicinal drugs, use of tobacco, use and/or possession of firearms or fireworks and premarital sex. Racial discrimination and prejudice will not be tolerated. All students are expected to live in accordance with the “Commitment to Community Standards,” which is easily accessible on the Goshen College website at: www.goshen.edu/aboutgc/community.php.

Admitted students must submit the $200 enrollment deposit in order to establish their priority for campus housing and to be eligible for registration for classes. The $200 enrollment deposit is refundable by written request before May 1 for students entering in the fall and Dec. 1 for students entering in the spring. International students will receive their I-20 after their $200 enrollment deposit has been received.

Consent for student release of information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy aspects of a student's educational record that are not considered "directory information." Educational records include financial aid records which are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent.

For this reason, it is necessary for the Goshen College Student Financial Aid Office to obtain permission from a student in order to release financial information not excluded by FERPA laws. For a full disclosure regarding FERPA, please visit our website.

Please note: Once you are registered for classes, Goshen College Student Financial Aid cannot release any financial aid information to anyone without consent from the student. For a parent to receive information from the Student Financial Aid Office, the student must list parent name(s) on this Consent for Student Release of Information form.

I, _____ the undersigned, authorize the release of my financial information to the individuals named below. The release only pertains to any financial aid records and does not allow the individuals named below access to information from any other Goshen College department or office.

I agree to waive any rights under FERPA and allow the below-named person(s) access to my financial records effective as of this date and until revoked or changed in writing to the Student Financial Aid Office.

Personal Written Essay

For your personal written essay, please submit one page telling us how your goals and dreams fit the Goshen College values and mission and our goal of healing the world peace by peace. Examples may include your interests, achievements, life goals or experiences.

OUR VALUES AND MISSION

At Goshen College, we're guided by our Christ-centered core values of passionate learning, servant leadership, global citizenship and compassionate peacemaking.

As a liberal arts college, GC is dedicated to the development of informed, articulate, sensitive responsible Christians.

As a ministry of Mennonite Church USA, we seek to integrate Christian values with educational, social and professional life.

And as a community of faith and learning, we strive to foster personal, intellectual, spiritual and social growth in every person. We view education as a moral activity that produces servant-leaders for the church and the world.

WHAT DO WE MEAN BY "PEACE BY PEACE"?

At Goshen, we're passionate about making peace in all its forms. Because we put God before anything else, we believe in care of one another – and care of the earth.

We strive to be non-defensive, non-violent, and never intolerant.

We accept people not like ourselves.

We're passionate about making peace with other faiths with other opinions with all kinds of ideas.

We're for people who want to live loving kindness.
To serve with joy.
To heal the world, peace by peace.
