Activities & Events

Recreational Special: Tonight's special activity is country line dancing at 10:30 p.m. There is also a paper airplane making/flying contest for distance. Competition and recreation concludes on Sunday night at 12:00 a.m..

Is your church located near a public or private college or university? Mennonite Education Agency is facilitating a meeting Monday evening at 9:15 p.m. in A402 about MC USA's role in relating to Mennonite students who choose to attend other than Mennonite institutions of higher education. David Miller of University Mennonite Church, State College, Pa. will chair the meeting. Participants will also discuss the possibility of creating a network of college/university-related congregations for mutual encouragement and sharing of ideas.

Thanks for your overwhelming support of the Bloodmobile! Appointments are still available for Sunday and Monday, 1-6 p.m. in A-Junction. Also, volunteers are needed for both of these days.

You are invited to a 20-30 minute service of Morning Prayer drawing on the classical Christian tradition, Monday, July 7, at 7:00 am in room B209.

Cancellations & Changes

Concerts by Hesston College baritone soloist and faculty member Tony Brown scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at Atlanta 2003 have been canceled due to illness. Tony's three CDs are for sale at the Hesston College Alumni Booth in A-Junction.

Wanted: Up-to-date pastors

All credentialed Mennonite pastors have a ministerial record on MennoData, the official ministerial database for Mennonite Church USA. Conferences store your credentials on the database, but there are many incomplete or out-of-date records that hinder research on the Mennonite pastorate.

Stop by our exhibit, get on the Internet and update your record. We have your login information available at convention.
