

Goshen College Student Loan Code of Conduct

Goshen College is committed to the highest standards of ethical behavior. In an effort to rule out any perceived or actual conflict of interest between Goshen College employees and private educational lenders, Goshen College has adopted the following code of conduct:

1. Goshen College does not participate in any revenue-sharing arrangements with any private lender
2. Goshen College employees shall accept any gifts of greater than a “nominal value.”
 - a. Nominal value is defined as more than $10.00
3. Goshen College does not permit any employee to accept any fee, payment or other financial benefit from a lender or affiliate of a lender as compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or contract to provide services to a lender or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans.
4. Goshen College does not assign private lenders to any first-time borrower through financial aid packaging or any other means.
5. Goshen College recognizes that a borrower has the right to choose any private lender from which to borrow to finance his or her education. We will certify a loan from any lender a student chooses.
6. Goshen College will not accept any assistance with call center or financial aid office staffing from any lenders or anyone affiliated with a lender.
