As people gather for the program, there will be snapshots of remembrance from 7:15 to 7:30.

In this "revue" we look backward and forward. We remember those talents we have shared in the college years. And we anticipate the "Auditions for Life" which we face together.

Special thanks to the many class members who participated in planning and producing this program.

The program was planned by P.J. Helmuth, Beth Hochstetler, Bruce Janz, Vanessa King, Jodi Meabon, Abril Rivera, Dan Hess.

We Continue the Journey

All: Each of us is on a journey toward a more complete knowledge of what it means to be human, what it means to follow Jesus, and what it means to work for reconciliation in a world fragmented by selfishness.

Family and Friends: Throughout the years we have known you, we have given you the support of our knowledge and the freedom to expand your own knowledge.

Graduates: We recognize the wisdom you, our family and friends, have passed on to us. We have listened to your stories, sung your songs, and observed your versatility in meeting challenges. Your lives and experiences present us with options for our own futures.

Faculty: During your college years we have shared our knowledge with you — not only information about our academic fields, but also the wisdom we have gained through our experiences.

Graduates: Faculty and staff, we appreciate your willingness to share yourselves with us. Thank you for listening to our opinions and encouraging us to process the information we study and make our own decisions about what we will accept and what we will struggle to change.

Faculty, Family and Friends: Throughout your lives and your college years, we have tried to teach you, not disconnected facts, but the skills you need to live a life you will enjoy and a life that contributes to those around you.

Graduates: We anticipate continued learning and growth as we seek to share our lives with the community in constructive ways.

All: We do not learn in isolation. We can learn from each other if we are open to accept the various directions in which our experiences lead us. We will seek to increase our understanding of each other and of ourselves, and to use our knowledge in ways that benefit the community.

Congregational Hymn

“Immortal, Invisible, God”

Tune: St. Denio 11.11.11.11.

1. Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.
2. Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy justice like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.
3. To all, life Thou givest to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish, but naught changeth Thee.

Where I shall labor joyously In service, Lord, for Thee.
3. Help me to show Thy glorious way That leads in hope to Thee,
Till other souls their joy shall find, In service, Lord, for Thee.

Arrangements have been made for a professional photographer to take a picture of each graduate as he or she receives a diploma. Color proofs of these photos will be mailed two weeks after graduation. Details have been given to the graduates. This will ensure that all families will have a picture of their graduate receiving a diploma.

The following list of graduates includes all members of the 1988 graduating class whether participating in the exercises or being graduated in absentia. Some members of the 1989 class have chosen to participate in these exercises.

Two degrees are conferred. Those with a major in Nursing receive the Bachelor of Science in Nursing. All others receive the Bachelor of Arts.

Following each name is the field of study being completed by the student. Use of the diagonal (/) indicates that the two fields are a double major program with two equal areas of concentration. Areas in which a minor will be completed are indicated by italics.
