April 24, 2005

Welcome!

Welcome to our campus, whether you are a frequent Goshen College guest or are visiting for the first time on this special occasion of commencement weekend. We are glad you are here to enjoy the events that signal both endings and beginnings in the lives of our graduates – to cherish the memories of accomplishments, friendships and events that have come before, and to anticipate the new life beyond college with your graduate. Please know that our deep desire is to serve you well throughout this important weekend.

On behalf of the Goshen College faculty and staff, I wish to extend sincere congratulations to all students, parents and families during this 107th Goshen College commencement. Thank you for the dedication and commitment to educational opportunity that has brought you to this wonderful moment in your lives and in the life of the college. We pray that you have experienced the joy of the journey here and will continue, on your individual paths, to live out the college's core values: Christ-centeredness, passionate learning, global citizenship, compassionate peacemaking and servant-leadership.

Litany

Written by Brianne Donaldson

Leader: Passionate God of calling, we yearn for the eyes to see that which moves us toward our deepest desires and the world's immeasurable needs. Awaken us to the vision of your creation and your created – to the subtle shifts in earth and sky from dark, light to bright green from gray, to white to cloudless blue; to red-breasted robins and silvery magnolia blossoms. Inspire us with good films watched with good friends and challenge us to look for aspirations and dreams in the faces of strangers.

Congregation: Help us to accept the gift of rest and waiting. Give us eyes of anticipation looking for signs of your renewal. Cultivate in us a spirit of expectation.

Leader: Teach us the language of listening – for unspoken truths within stories and memory; for voices that are absent; for delightful conversations on which to eavesdrop and for particularity and essence in the midst of generality. Let us hear and feel deep guttural laughter, finely blended harmony, a child's hiccups, parade sirens and sad goodbyes. Grant us patience to hear the creak of the rocking chair; courage to listen to the needs and requests of those with whom we share our lives and grace to sit in the silence of our own fears.

Congregation: Help us be active in asking and alert in conversation. Give us an eagerness to discern the spirit. Let us be content in stillness.

Leader: Great Mover of Mountains, give us the strength for your journey. Move our feet into our communities – on sidewalks and grocery isles; along fence rows and in court rooms; down school hallways and coffee shops; through animal shelters and churches; to hardware stores and dance floors. Give us comfortable shoes, reliable maps, bends in the road, gracious companions and a willingness to be lost.

Congregation: Remind us of our strengths and sustain us in weakness as we travel with your children. Let us rely on one another in all places at all times. Help us to remember in our reason and doubt that you are, that you care and that your truth is ever capable of rekindling hope, restoring faith and recreating love.

Leader: Let all of God's people say:

AMEN

The Class of 2005

The following list of degree candidates includes all members of the 2005 graduating class whether participating in the exercises or being graduated in absentia. Some December 2005 graduates have chosen to participate in these exercises. Inclusion in this publication may not be construed as documentation of completion of degree requirements. Certification of the conferral of a degree is by receipt of a diploma or official transcript noting degree completion.

Two degrees are conferred. Those with majors in Nursing, Organizational Management, Organizational Leadership or Management Information Systems receive the Bachelor of Science degree. All others receive the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Following each name is the field of study being completed by the student. Use of the diagonal (/) indicates that the two fields are a double major program with two equal areas of concentration. Areas in which a minor will be completed are indicated by italics.

Honors Program

The vision for honors study at Goshen College is broad and inclusive rather than prescribed and elitist. It promotes collaboration as well as individual achievement and celebrates a wide variety of talents and gifts. The following criteria must be met if students apply to earn a degree "with honors:" completing two or more honors seminars, presenting work at an academic symposium, participating in 40 or more hours of community service and writing a senior thesis.

Nursing Honors

Sigma Theta Tau International endeavors to seek out and reward all students in baccalaureate or higher degree nursing programs who have demonstrated ability in nursing as evidenced by superior academic achievement. Honors nursing students wear a cord on their commencement gown.

The academic procession

The history of academic dress reaches back into the earliest days of the oldest universities. The costumes and colors, trimmings and patterns you will see are all traditional and interpret both the degree and field of learning. The bachelor's gown has pointed sleeves; the master's gown has an oblong sleeve. The doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves decorated with chevrons of velvet.

The colors you will see in the hoods and gowns of GC faculty represent the various fields in which the degrees were taken: apricot – nursing; brown – fine arts; citron – social work; crimson – journalism; dark blue – philosophy; yellow – science; green – medicine; lemon yellow – library science; blue – education; pink – music; purple – law; sage green – physical education; salmon pink – public health; scarlet – theology; brown – business; white – arts and humanities; and orange – engineering.

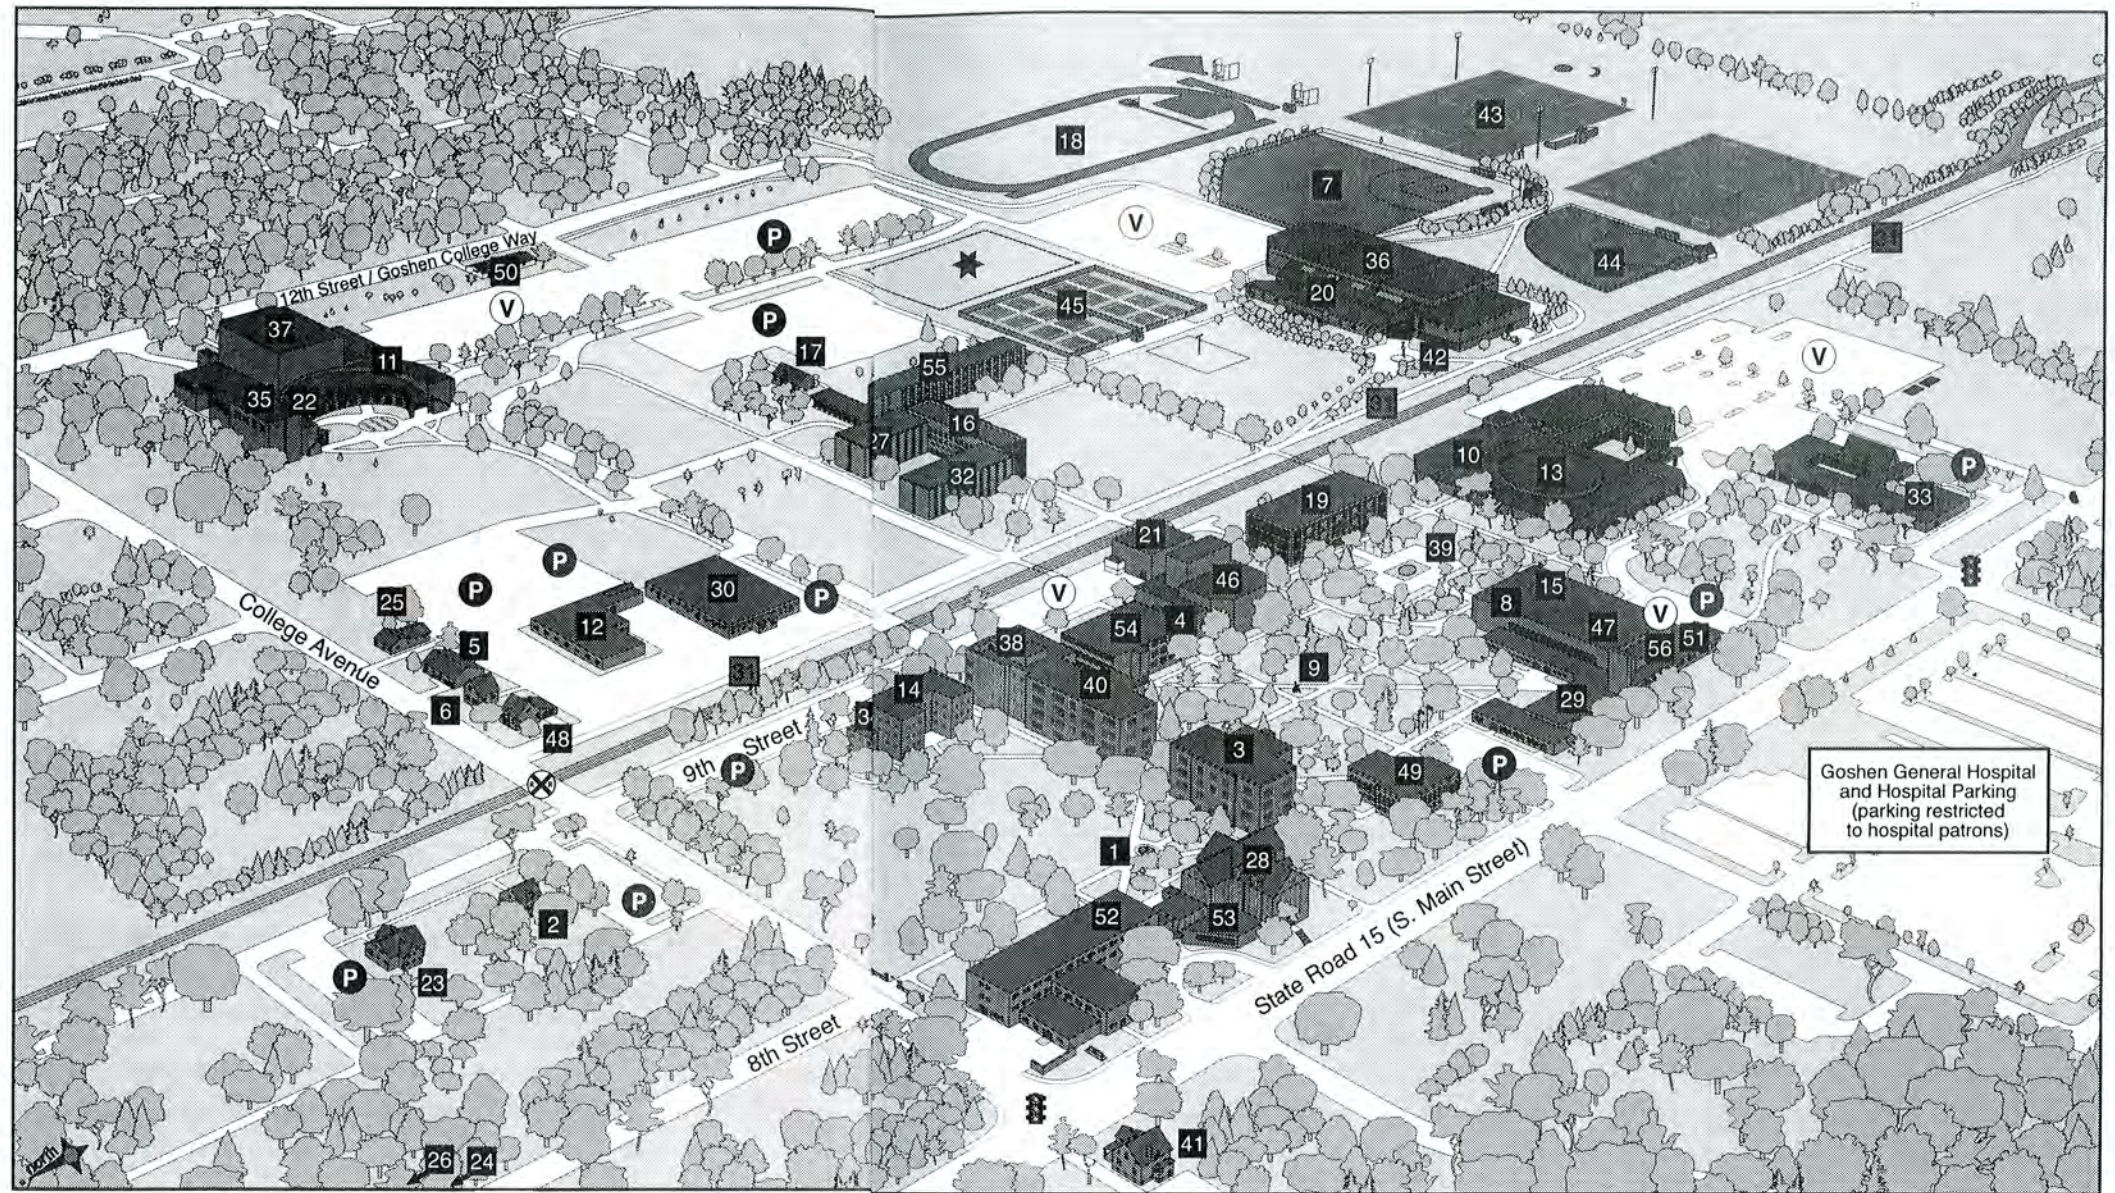

The hoods, differing in length for the three degrees, are lined with the official colors of the university or college conferring the degree. Hoods are edged and bound with velvet of the color appropriate for the degree.

A note about photography:

Arrangements have been made for a professional photographer to take a picture of each graduate as he or she receives a diploma. Color proofs of these photos will be mailed one week after graduation. Details have been given to the graduates. This will ensure that all families will have a picture of their graduate receiving a diploma.

The lamp and the book

In 1904 “Culture for Service” was made the motto of Goshen College, after the term was used by then – president Noah E. Byers (1903-1913). At a traditional graduation week ceremony carried out at least by the early 1920s, the graduating senior class solemnly passed the actual book and lamp to the juniors. Found in the college seal, the book symbolizes the importance of the written word, especially holy Scripture. The lighted lamp represents the light of learning that, in a world of darkness, pushes back the darkness.

Goshen College is a place of light and of enlightenment. Signing the Goshen College book is a tradition that links generations of alumni in the spirit of “Culture for Service” and extends the light of learning to future students.

The 2005 Commencement Planning Committee consisted of seniors Joelle Dussek, Tolu Kayode, Peter Moyer and Ashley Sider; faculty class advisers Beth Martin Birky and Keith Graber Miller; Jodi Beyeler, production manager; and Stanley Miller, executive secretary.
