

PARABLES, a student worship ensemble from Goshen College, shares music, original drama and personal stories.

PARABLES

*Front row (left to right): Lauren, Rebecca, Sharada, Yejin.
Back row (left to right): Matthew, Julian, Jonah, Aidan*

Together as One

Parables' personal stories and dramas will be inserted throughout the program, which is drawn from the following selections.

Sawubona

Zulu text, music by Jane Ramsey Miller
I see you, I am here, Yes!

Non nobis, Domine

Latin text, music by William Byrd
Not to us, O Lord, but to your name give the glory.

Lord, Listen to Your Children

text and music by Ken Medema

Water

text and music by Anders Edenroth

Would You Harbor Me?

text and music by Ysaye M. Barnwell

Shepherd of My Soul

Korean text and music by Martin Nystrom
You are the Good Shepherd, who provides for me and protects me on my way.

Every Eye is Different

text by Adam M.L. Tice, music by Gustav Holst

Peace, Wine and Strangers

modified Sing the Journey text and music by Matthew Smucker

Baba Yetu

Swahili adaptation of "The Lord's Prayer" by Chris Kiagiri, music by Christopher Tin

Peace, Wine and Strangers

Modified text from Sing the Journey #174

Matthew Smucker

That peace will rise like bread, we can al-ways hope. That jus-tice will flow like wine, we can al-ways hope. Lord, help our ta-ble make our stran-gers Lord, our ta-ble make stran-gers friends, and hope, let it rise like bread to you our God we pray.

A - - - - - men.

2017-18 Parables Members

Rebecca Choi, a music education major from Arlington, Massachusetts

Aidan Friesen, an environmental science major/chemistry minor from Goshen, Indiana

Julian Harnish, a math major/music minor from Bluffton, Ohio

Yejin Kim, a music for social change and piano major/Spanish and art minor from Seoul, South Korea

Lauren Myers, a biology major/musical theater minor from North Manchester, Indiana

Matthew Smucker, a music education major/Spanish minor from Goshen, Indiana

Sharada Weaver, a nursing major/music minor from Hyattsville, Maryland

Jonah Yoder, an interdisciplinary studies (music, theater, entrepreneurship) major from Goshen, Indiana

The students are directed by Dr. Debra Detwiler, professor of music with administrative support from Dan Koop Liechty, Ph.D., director of alumni and career networks.

Goshen College is a four-year liberal arts college dedicated to the development of informed, articulate, sensitive, responsible Christians. As a ministry of Mennonite Church USA, we seek to integrate Christian values with educational and professional life. To learn more, contact Church Relations (574.535.7565; churchrelations@goshen.edu) or visit us at goshen.edu/faith.

 GOSHEN COLLEGE

goshen.edu/parables