

Convocation and Chapel, Fall 2018

Semester Requirement: 12 events total

All events listed count for convo credit. All events are free unless otherwise noted.

Weekly convos and chapels are Wednesdays 10–10:40 a.m. Shaded events are at other times and locations as noted.

Wednesday August 29	Opening Presidential Convocation and Welcome Tunnel: Global Citizenship with President Rebecca Stoltzfus	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Wednesday September 5	Chapel: #InThisTogether , 2018 theme with Gwen Gustafson-Zook, campus pastor	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Friday September 7	Convo: “But I didn’t mean it like that!” : GC’s Anti-Harassment Policy and the Importance of Intent v. Impact	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Wednesday September 12	Convo: Re-Presenting Student Life Dean of Students Gilberto Perez and staff members engage students on creating a culture of care, trust and inclusion.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Friday September 21	Chapel: #InThisTogether , sharing this holy ground.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Wednesday September 26	Convo: Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month. The Latinx Student Union will lead this event.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Thursday October 4	Yoder Public Affairs Lecture: “U.S.-Africa Relations: An Ambassador’s Perspective,” with David Reimer, the U.S. ambassador to the republics of Mauritius and Seychelles.	7:30 p.m. Rieth Recital Hall, Music Center
Friday October 5	Homecoming Convocation: Alumni Awards. The 2018 Culture for Service, Champions of Character and Young Alumni Servant Leadership award winners will be honored. David Reimer and Jes Stoltzfus Buller will speak.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
October 5-7	Homecoming Peace Plays: “History Lesson” Frankie Little Hardin, the 2018 winner of the Goshen College Peace Play contest, is from Newnan, Ga. She will attend and offer a talkback at all three performances of her environmentalist play, which is set in an Audubon store, a Kentucky state historic site.	Fri 8 p.m., Sat 4 p.m., Sun 2 p.m. Umble Center $5: Purchase tickets in advance at GC Box Office or goshen.edu/tickets
Monday October 8	Convo: Indigenous Peoples Day: Join this exploration of our past, present and future together on this good earth.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Wednesday October 10	Chapel: #InThisTogether: Employee faith story with John D. Roth, professor of history and director of Mennonite Historical Library.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel

Convocation and Chapel, Fall 2018

Wednesday October 24	Convo: A Summer in Senegal The SST student group just returned will lead this event.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Wednesday October 31	Chapel: #InThisTogether: With Rebecca Burkholder and Blaine Derstine, Mennonite Central Committee Asia: “Breaking down walls; working across divides.”	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Friday November 2	Goshen College Symphony Orchestra, with GC Chamber Choir	7:30 p.m. Sauder Concert Hall, Music Center
Wednesday November 7	Convo: A Rare Gift: Introducing the Nyai Oyer Gamelan. Here is an opportunity to learn about the gamelan instrumental ensemble and the Javanese culture.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
November 9, 10, 11, 17, 18	Fall Mainstage: “Crimes of the Heart” The Umble 40th anniversary season featuring women playwrights and composers continues with this depiction of a Mississippi family of 20-something sisters banding together to navigate life’s struggles. The comedic play, by Beth Henley, won the 1981 Pulitzer Prize for drama.	8 p.m. on Nov. 9, 10, 17 3 p.m. on Nov. 11 and 18 Umbler Center $5 students/Purchase tickets in advance at GC Box Office or goshen.edu/tickets
Wednesday November 14	Chapel: #InThisTogether: With GC Inquiry Student Stories	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Friday November 16	Convo: A Visit with Alice Parker and Mary Oyer. Two extraordinary musicians share experiences and insights.	12 p.m. Rieth Recital Hall
Wednesday November 21	Convo: Crossing Boundaries Behind Bars. Students share their experiences in prison exchange classes.	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Wednesday November 28	Chapel: #InThisTogether: With Dr. LaKendra Hardware	10 a.m. Church-Chapel
Wednesday December 5	Chapel: #InThisTogether: With Mary, Joseph, Angels, Shepherds & Jesus! “Songs of the Season”	10 a.m. Church-Chapel