

Career Action Plan — First-years and Sophomores

Self promotion

- Career and vocational discernment through faculty adviser and choosing major
- Begin professional résumé
- Start LinkedIn profile
- Start a professional email account

Career research

- Career assessment with Coordinator of Career Networks, including selecting co-curricular activities and engagement in appropriate student organizations
- Read The Communicator for the many Career Networks announcements
- Explore career paths within major
- Attend Career Networks events such as presentations, lectures, meetups, etc.
- Volunteer at career fairs, mock interviews, CN events, etc.
- Explore companies or organizations for internship opportunities

Professional readiness

- Meet with Coordinator of Career Networks
- Attend Majors and Minors Fair
- Attend Career Networks events for career readiness and professional networking
- Get involved with student organizations
- Complete LinkedIn profile
- Develop good study habits and maintain high GPA

Portfolio

- Begin developing portfolio of your work